WELL-OILED MACHINERY ISSUES GOVERNMENT BONDS

MONTREAL, Nov. 4, 1932—Office of the assistant receiver general, Canada in Montreal and Toronto, yesterday were reported to be moderately busy in issuing interim bonds of the new Dominion Loan. The real rush, it was said, would not come for several days when the thousands of individual applications from private investors begin to reach the government offices.

Last year, for the National Service Loan, there were 109,000 individual applications, which involved an immense amount of detail for the branch offices of the receiver general. On that occasion, the rush came at the end of the first week and tapered off gradually as the flow of subscriptions from outside points were filled. This year it is not expected that there will be so many applications in view of the fact that the total amount of bonds to be issued is not nearly as large as the $221,000,000 National Service Loan.

While the sales of both short and long-term bonds have been coming in steadily to date, it was pointed out that these subscriptions were principally those of the large investing institutions.

"It is the individual application which involves the retail work," said the office manager of one bond house, "both for the bond house and for the assistant receiver general. The institutional investor who buys, say, $600,000 of these bonds does it in one transaction which is handled with little more detail than is a transaction for a $500 bond. Yet it takes the subscriptions of some hundreds of small investors to make up a million of bonds."

Machinery of the department of finance had been so well oiled that the interim bonds were being delivered according to schedule on Tuesday morning although the sales did not begin until Monday. The procedure is that bonds paid for by certified cheque on one day are delivered at 9 o'clock the next morning. It was intimated that the department of finance expects to maintain this schedule regardless of any rush of applications that may develop.

The bonds which are being issued at present are merely interim certificates, printed. In due course—or in from three to six months—engraved 'definitive' bonds will be issued in exchange for the temporary certificates which are now being issued.

There are no figures available as to the approximate volume of business done in each office but it is understood that Montreal and Toronto handle more of these transactions than do other offices farther from the financial centres.

BLAIRMORE PUBLIC LIBRARY

Books being placed on the shelves this week are:

MARILYN'S STAGE PALS JOIN HER IN TALKIES

Billy Fields and Leon Errol, two of the most famous funsters of the stage, evoke many of the laughs in "Her Majesty Love" the first National picture starring Marilyn Miller, opening at the Orpheum Theatre tonight. The three were featured by Ziegfeld in the "Follies," but this is the first time they have been seen together in pictures.

CURRENT NOTES

If you have never been to Caliente, or if you don't think you can afford to go to this Monte Carlo in Mexico, you can obtain a vicarious thrill and go there by way of the screen. "Fast Companions," which is showing at the Cole theatre, Wednesday, Thursday of next week, brings to the screen the race track, a swell race, a gambling parlor, a thrilling frame-up, the stars, Casino, palm gardens and exotic life of this capital of pleasure.

You will also like a new person, lily in this picture. His name is Tom Brown, and he is as lively as they come. In fact, the whole cast of this picture is Irish—Maureen O'Sullivan, James Gleason, Mickey Rooney, Andy Devine. "Fast Companions" is all about a little crook reforming a big crook, because the big crook thought the little crook would grow up to be like him. Sounds complicated but try and keep back the tears and laughs.

"Fast Companions" is a story by Gerald Beaumont, and he knew how to write them. Don't miss it.

GIRL GUIDE NEWS

A Halloween party was held in the Scout hall for the Guides and Brownies on October 31st. Supper was served at 5 p.m., after which a short and interesting programme was rendered by the girls. Everybody had a good time.

The Guides took a hike over the hills in order to study the trees and gather autumn leaves. This was the last tramp before the snow came.

Miss Church will be in Blairmore towards the end of the week, to inspect the different companies of Guides in the Pass.

MAKES NIGHT OUT OF DAY IN "HONOR OF THE FAMILY"

From a standpoint of wardrobe Bebe Daniels had no means of telling night from day while working in her new first National picture, "The Honor of the Family," in which she is featured with Warren William and Alan Mowbray, at the Orpheum Theatre, starting Monday next.

Many sequences were of the boudoir sort, and Bebe came to work in the morning outfitted in sleeping pajamas and a lace negligee. The only times she dressed up was for breakfast and the drive to the studio, and for the reverse trip home to dinner. The rest of the day—some sixteen to eighteen hours of it—she was outfitted for sleep.

AS THE CALGARY ALBERTAN "ON LOOKER" SEES

Promoters of the sport might just as well pay pros as amateurs and have the hockey under proper management. The return of monied hockey, straight and above board and not behind a cloak, will go a long way toward eliminating the hit and miss system which has been in vogue so many years. Hockey players cannot lay around all winter and in fact 12 months out of the year without having had some remuneration for their services on the ice.

It doesn't matter how good a person may be in his particular line of work, there is always someone else capable of taking his place. The reason I mention this is because William H. "Bill" Chappell, noted sportsman, has tendered his resignation as president of the Crows' Nest Pass Hockey league. Bill as we all know, will be missed. Someone may fill his place, but there will not be the same efficiency. For a great many years Bill Chappell has been connected with hockey and other branches of sport in the Pass. He has been manager and president of the Blairmore Bears and last year took over the leadership of the league. He acted firm and fair and commanded the good wishes of players, officials and fans. His resignation is due to ill-health.

A TIP FOR LOST HUNTERS

Hunters lost and uncertain of the compass directions, may fix North with their watch, thus: Place it flat on the hand, stand a match upright over the end of the minute hand and turn the watch until the match shadow falls along the hand. A line drawn across the centre of the watch and midway between the end of the hour hand and 12 o'clock runs North and South; North lying on the side on which the hour hand is farther from 12. Even on cloudy days the match will show a faint shadow. This is a Boy Scout stunt.

HERE'S PURCHASING POWER:

With the world short on purchasing power and most of it off the gold standard, Ontario's gold mines are more than doing their bit to bring conditions back to normal. Production for the first eight months of 1932 exceeded the output for the same period last year by a large amount and points to record figures for the full year's operations. Production of gold bullion for August was substantially higher than for July, and exceeded all other months of the year to date, with the exception of May and June. Increases were recorded from all three producing areas, Porcupine, Kirkland Lake and Northwestern Ontario, with the first-mentioned field registering its greatest monthly output for the year.

Statutes of Canada provide that November 11th, Armistice Day, shall be observed as a national holiday, under the name of Remembrance Day. Tomorrow will therefore be an official holiday in Alberta.

ANGLO-CANADIAN TRADE TREATY PASSES HOUSE

Ottawa, Ont.—The House of Commons ratified the Anglo-Canadian Trade Treaty, 128 to 80.

While Conservative cheers resounded through the corridors, the House of Commons placed its stamp of approval on the Anglo-Canadian Trade Treaty, negotiated at the Imperial Economic Conference.

Supported by one Liberal, J. L. May, Hans-King, M.S., and six Progressive Conservatives rolled up a majority of 88 as a climax to three weeks of bitter debate.

Maintaining their opposition to the treaty, Liberals enlisted two Independents and four Laborites in voting against the treaty.

Scores of persons were turned away from the galleries when Premier R. B. Bennett rose to close the debate. He pleaded for a "fair and honest trial" for the agreement, "which will give Canadian producers free entry into the markets of 40,000,000 people."

He accused the Liberals, particularly R. H. Macdonnell King, of betraying and abandoning the time-honored party policy of fostering empire trade through tariff preferences. The six Progressives who supported the treaty were: D. M. Kennedy, Pease River, Alfred Speakman, Red Deer; W. T. Lucas, Camrose; M. N. Campbell, MacKenzie; Michael Luchovich, Vegreville; and A. M. Carmichael, Kindersley.

Monetary Reform

C.F.M. Passes Resolution Urging Stabilization Of Rate Of Exchange

Dauphin, Man.—United Farmers of Manitoba stand as proponents of monetary reform. After lengthy debate delegates in annual convention here passed a resolution urging the Federal Government to stabilize the rate of exchange on the pound sterling.

Resolutions approving a reduction in lake freight rates and encouragement of shipments via the Hudson Bay route also were passed.

The resolution dealing with exchange was termed "stitching the dollar to the pound." A parity of $4.86 2/3 was mentioned as an ideal level. Many papers were read on monetary reform and the history of currency in Canada for the past 25 years was given considerable attention.

Demand for the reduction in lake freight rates follows similar action taken by the United Farmers of Alberta. It is put forward in protest against action of the Lake Shipping Association, which, since its organization in June, the resolution declares, has gradually increased rates from 3 1/2 to seven cents a bushel.

Would Reduce Excise Tax

Cheaper Cigarettes and Liquor If Bill Passes

Ottawa, Ont.—Cheaper cigarettes and liquor may result from a bill introduced in the House of Commons by Hon. E. B. Ryckman, Minister of National Revenue.

The Anglo-Canadian trade treaty reduced tariffs against cigarettes and liquors imported from Great Britain. The Ryckman bill would reduce to the same extent the excise tax paid by Canadian manufacturers, placing them on an equal footing with the distillers and cigarette manufacturers of Great Britain.

The excise tax on Canadian cigarettes would be cut from 38 a thousand to 34, a saving of four cents on a package of 20. The tax on Canadian liquor would be reduced from 50 to 37 a proof gallon.

The Anglo-Canadian trade treaty reduced the duty on British cigarettes from $4.10 to $3.56 a pound, leaving the tariff against United States and other foreign countries at the higher figure. The duty on liquors was reduced from $10 to $8 a proof gallon and again the United States and foreign import was not touched.

Heavy Wheat Exports

Vancouver, B.C.—Vancouver is not waiting for the effect of British preference to send its wheat export totals to new high marks. During the past seven days, the weekly report of the Vancouver Merchants' Exchange reveals a total of 2,727,422 bushels was exported. This brings the season's total to 20,921,546 bushels as compared with 10,154,952 bushels at the corresponding date last year.

Against Public Ownership

C.N.R. Vice-President Does Not Believe in Government Operation Of Railways

Montreal, Que.—The Star prints the following despatch from its Ottawa correspondent:

"Plans put forward by E. W. Beatty, K.C., president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and Gerard Ruel, K.C., former legal vice-president of the Canadian National Railway, for the solution of Canada's vexed railway situation were rejected by the recent royal commission on transportation in order that the scheme suggested by Sir Henry Thornton, former C.N.R. president, might be adopted in its substantial outline.

"Perhaps as sensational an angle to it as any is the statement of Mr. Ruel, after his years of association with the Canadian National system, that he does not believe in public ownership. "My experience, public ownership of railways has been that it means government ownership," he told the commissioners.

"You mean political ownership?" Sir Joseph Flavelle asked him.

"Yes," Mr. Ruel returned. "The plan of President Beatty of the C.P.R. for the solution of the country's transportation difficulties, as revealed by the evidence, was for the government to lease the C.N.R. to the C.P.R. for a long term, or else in perpetuity. Mr. Beatty estimated that the C.P.R. management of the two systems would result in economies totalling $50,000,000 annually.

"In commenting upon this scheme, C.N.R. witnesses stated the savings would not amount, in their opinion, to more than $30,000,000 annually.

"Mr. Ruel's proposal was virtually a temporary amalgamation.

Wheat Surplus Increasing

Rome Institute Report Shows 110,000,000 Bushels Carry-Over

Rome, Italy.—Exportable supplies of world wheat are inferior to 1931 by 60,000,000 bushels, the International Institute of Agriculture reports.

This drop is offset by a fall in the probable requirements of importing countries of 170,000,000 bushels. This situation has been caused by poor crops in the exporting countries and good crops in the importing countries, coupled with an abundance of rye, corn and potatoes, the institute reports. Stricter regulations of international wheat trade have also played a part.

The total available for export is fixed at 1,300,000,000 bushels. Of this amount 570,000,000 bushels are old stocks, and 730,000,000 bushels represent the new crop surplus.

Since the old exportable stocks are adequate to meet almost nine-tenths of the needs of importers, practically the entire surplus of the 1932 crop will be carried over for consumption in 1933 and 1934.

It is estimated the existing stocks have increased by 110,000,000 bushels.

May Have Planned Robbery

Youth Arrested In Garden Of Ramsey MacDonald

London, Eng.—What was believed to be an attempt to rob Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald or his house was revealed in a case in Hampstead police court.

Ivan Serva, described as a British subject, was arraigned on a charge of loitering at the Prime Minister's house. He was arrested, police said, in the garden of Mr. MacDonald's house at 3 a.m.

Mr. MacDonald rarely uses his lodge at Fognal, near Hampstead, while parliament is in session, preferring to remain in his official residence at No. 10 Downing Street.

The head of the National cabinet was believed to have been at Fognal Tuesday night, November 1, however, during the disturbance in Whitehall.

Serva is a well-dressed, thick-set youth, who speaks English with a foreign accent. He was carrying bricks under his arms when the police found him.

The prisoner said he had just entered the garden for a look around. He did not resist arrest.

Want Railway To Keep Agreement

Montreal, Que.—The city of Montreal intends to keep the Canadian Pacific Railway to its contract to keep 2,500 men employed at its Angus shops here. What amounted to an ultimatum to the railway was issued by the city following a conference.

In Charge Of Indian Affairs

Ottawa, Ont.—Dr. H. W. McGill of Calgary has taken over his duties here as deputy superintendent Indian Affairs.

Jobless In Toronto

Mayor Asks Premier Bennett To Care For Transients

Toronto, Ont.—It is the duty of the Dominion Government to care for jobless men who arrived by train from Winnipeg, Mayor W. J. Stewart declared, and wired Premier R. B. Bennett that the government should provide for transportation of the men to their homes.

The number of arrivals was variously estimated as high as 500. Mayor Stewart, in his telegram, reported arrival of 99 on one train and said he was advised another train had arrived with a larger quota. He claimed the homes of some are in the west.

The jobless are said to have come from different parts of western Canada, many of them from the harvest fields in the prairie sections.

New Air Regulations

Operating "Plane Over Canadian Penitentiaries Is Forbidden"

Toronto, Ont.—The Mail and Empire in a despatch from its Ottawa correspondent, quoted J. A. Wilson, controller of civil aviation, as issuing an order forbidding operation of aircraft over Canadian penitentiaries.

The text of the order as carried by the newspaper is:

"Pilots and operators of aircraft are hereby warned to avoid flying over or near any penitentiary or like institution. In future any aircraft observed intentionally flying over such institutions for any purpose, whatever will be considered to have committed an infringement of the air regulations concerning prohibited areas."

New Wheat Tariff

New Duty Goes Into Effect In Germany

Berlin, Germany.—A new wheat tariff went into effect in Germany Nov. 2, imposing a 7.50 mark duty (about $1.77) per ton on wheat imported on import certificates.

This tariff will not affect wheat brought into Germany, under ordinary tariff schedules, but only that grain previously brought in duty free on certificates issued by the government against wheat exported earlier in the year.

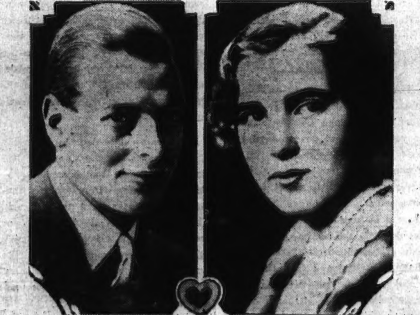

FARMERS ASK FOR LIMIT ON OTTAWA PACT

Dauphin, Man.—Limiting of the imperial conference agreements to the "life of the present parliament" unless a mandate is obtained from the people confirming the five-year term they now contain, is demanded by the United Farmers of Manitoba in a resolution unanimously adopted at the annual convention today. The resolution declares the present policies, "so ruinous to agriculture, be discontinued."

Another resolution bearing on international problems was adopted when, after lengthy debate on currency, a motion was adopted urging the dominion government to stabilize the rate of exchange on the pound sterling at a parity of $4.86 2/3.

Demands for a further reduction in lake freight rates, and the encouragement of shipments via the Hudson Bay route, the dominion government to handle the traffic if necessary during the initial development, also received the support of the convention.

ANGLO-SWEDISH ROYAL ROMANCE REVIVED

With the sudden arrival in London of Princess Ingrid of Sweden, Dame Rumer is again busy predicting that a royal engagement is in the offing with Prince George as the lucky man. Above is a picture of the popular couple. Prince George is the fourth son of His Majesty while Princess Ingrid is a daughter of the Crown Prince of Sweden.

Britain Lifts Embargo On Canadian Livestock

No Need To Exclude Cattle For Fear Of Disease

London, Eng.—The House of Commons moved without division to remove the existing embargo against importation of Canadian cattle to the United Kingdom.

The House decided to lift the embargo after passing the meat quota clause of the Ottawa agreements bill, 203 to 65.

Malcolm MacDonald, son of the Prime Minister and under secretary for the dominions, explained there was no further need to exclude Canadian cattle from the country on the ground it might be diseased.

He said also the period of detention of cattle at the Canadian port of shipment would be one day instead of the customary three days as the length of the voyage was sufficient to allow time for development of disease should it occur.

Lifting of the embargo will go into effect when the Ottawa agreements bill becomes law. The bill is expected to encounter little opposition in the House of Lords.

To Care For Jobless

Alberta Relief Commission To Take Charge Until Relief Camps Open

Calgary, Alberta.—Calgary city fathers bid farewell to a great burden when the Alberta government decided it would take full responsibility for single jobless who have crowded into the city to the number of more than 2,500. Alberta relief commission will handle the feeding and housing of the men who will obtain two meals a day and bed tickets until relief camps are opened.

Following conversations with city officials, the relief commission chairman, A. A. MacKenzie, and Mayor Andy Davidson announced the agreement whereby the provincial authorities would handle the situation. A community kitchen will be opened here, and the men will be given meals after they have registered with relief officials.

How long the arrangement will continue is unknown as it depends on when the relief camps are opened. However, it was explained men refusing to go to the camps when they are formed would be refused any relief.

Has Little Information

Macbray Unable To Shed Much Light On Shortage Of College Funds

Stony Mountain Penitentiary, Stony Mountain, Man.—Clustered about an improvised sick bed in a little room in the administration building of the prison, a board of inquiry and staff learned from John A. Macbray that he knew little of the financial collapse that sent him to penitentiary for seven years.

Obviously suffering severely, the former lawyer, university tutor, churchman and financier lay propped by pillows on a couch and emphatically declared he nor anyone else to his knowledge, ever profited from the financial debacle that wiped out endowment funds of the University of Manitoba and the Church of England, and swept his own investment firm into bankruptcy.

At times writhing in pain and tossing his head with half closed eyes, Macbray was shaking white hand to emphasize his declaration. He had no memory of any happenings in his office, he said, and asked the commission, investigating $1,000,000 defalcations in college funds, to allow him to continue his plans for providing information.

Interested In Grain Show

Eastern Provinces Preparing To Compete In All Classes

Regina, Sask.—John A. Mooney, managing director of the World's Grain Exhibition and Conference, has returned to the city after an extended visit to eastern Canada in the interests of next year's world-wide cereal exhibition.

He stated that all the eastern provinces are making elaborate preparations to be represented at the exhibition, not only in the competitive classes, but also in the section reserved for provincial educational exhibits.

Interest in the forthcoming exhibition is very widespread in the east, Mr. Mooney declared, and farmers are working in close co-operation with provincial departments of agriculture to ensure the best possible grain samples for entry in the competitive classes.

The Exchange Question

Federal Government Is Deeply Concerned About The Matter

Ottawa, Ont.—The Canadian Government is very deeply concerned about the exchange question, Hon. H. H. Stevens, Minister of Trade and Commerce, told the House of Commons. His remarks followed an amendment by G. G. Coote, (U.F.A., MacLeod), who had asked that the ratification of the imperial conference agreement be coupled with an undertaking to bring the Canadian dollar to a parity with the pound sterling.

HOUSE REFUSES TO DISCUSS SUN LIFE CHARGES

Ottawa, Ont.—Efforts to discuss the finances and management record of the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, proved abortive in the House of Commons.

Amid a series of interruptions and general disorder, the Speaker ruled the subject was not sufficiently important to sidetrack debate on the Anglo-Canadian trade treaty. And the House upheld him 128 to 55.

Mitchell F. Hepburn, Liberal, West Elgin, sponsored the move "to investigate the present financial position of the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada and the conduct of its senior officials as disclosed in Chicago by the recent court investigation into the affairs of Manuel and Martin Insull, now indicted by the United States government on charges of embezzlement and larceny."

A hush fell over the chamber as the leader of the Ontario Liberal party typewritten statement containing his charges against the officers of the insurance company. For a minute or two the Speaker studied it, then ruled the discussion out of order.

"Read the statement," shouted members of the Progressive group. "Let's know all about it," came from others. But the Speaker steadfastly refused to read the statement or permit any discussion.

BAIRDWIN HAS A PLAN TO ASSIST IDLE OF BRITAIN

London, Eng.—Stanley Baldwin, Lord President of the Council in the National Government, informed the United Club that the government is working on a program to deal with the entire problem presented by the able-bodied unemployed of the nation.

"We hope to get it into law by the summer of next year," Mr. Baldwin said. "Our plans are not ready for that yet, but I think it may be possible for something to be contained in the king's speech for the opening of parliament."

"We hope to effect a really adjustable and just scheme which will be capable of standing the test of the next half century."

The "hunger marchers," who moved into town a week ago to serve a set of demands on the government had ceased to be a threat, but remained as a problem.

A few of them have already gone back where they came from, but apparently the weary march in has deterred the rest from beginning the march back. They seemed to have decided they might as well lie here as at home, and most of them stay on, sleeping in the places provided for them by city authorities.

British House Passes Pact

Ottawa Agreement Is Given Substantial Majority

London, Eng.—To the accompaniment of loud ministerial cheers the House of Commons gave third reading to the government's Ottawa agreements bill with a heavy majority of 348. The vote was 416 to 68.

The bill was then sent to the House of Lords.

Final hours of debate brought a renewed attack on the trade pact between the United Kingdom and the Dominions, concluded at the Ottawa Economic Conference, by Sir Herbert Samuel, leader of the free trade element of the opposition.

Sir Herbert declared Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, himself, had been forced to contemplate the possibility of a changed government in some of the Dominion's repudiating its agreement with the United Kingdom.

It had been made clear during the course of debate, he continued, that the agreements which purported to be for five years could be altered at any time by parliament whenever it chose.

Mr. Chamberlain replied for the government that now Canadian duties, substituted by the Anglo-Canadian trade treaty, could not be altered within the next five years except to a limited degree specified in the agreement.

New Amendment

Ottawa, Ont.—A new amendment to the motion for ratification of the Ottawa agreement was moved by Dr. Thomas Donnelly (Lib., Willow Bunch), in the House of Commons. It declares that no approval by the Canadian parliament be held to preclude the entering of this country into any arrangement which may be proposed at the coming world economic conference.

Railmen Confident

Montreal, Que.—Confident that "the government will find some method of being helpful to those men affected by shut-downs in railway shops from coast to coast," Frank McKenna, chairman of the Federated Trades of the Canadian Pacific Railway, returned to Montreal from Ottawa after securing an interview with Premier R. B. Bennett.

No Session Till January

Saskatoon, Sask.—Rumors of the possibility of the Saskatchewan legislature meeting early in December were scotched when Premier J. T. M. Anderson stated it was extremely unlikely there would be a session until early in January. The Premier made the statement on his arrival here last week.

Hunger Marchers Go Home

London, Eng.—Balked in their third attempt to enforce their demands, the unemployed "hunger marchers," who struggled into London, turned homeward. Thirty men climbed aboard a charabanc and started back for Brighton, whence they came. Other contingents also prepared to go home.

BUSINESS NEEDS A FRIEND

Business is not sick. It has quietly withdrawn, because its self-respect does not permit it to stoop into the hovel of narrow selfishness, where individuals, industries, cities, states and nations try to lure it.

The principles of business, like the law of gravity, are always ready to serve man at any time he does not defy them.

Business is tolerant, consistent and impartial. By its very nature, it must be concerned equally with the welfare of each individual in the world. Although it grows great only through healthy rivalry, yet it must remain inexorably mutual.

Groups of people having similar interests put their own needs above those of larger groups.

Cuban sugar producers expand and glut the American market. American sugar producers expand; they trade votes in congress with American oil producers, and shut out both Cuban sugar and European oil with a tariff. Then all suffer because business, incapable of existing under such conditions, has quietly withdrawn.

Organized local selfishness insists, for example, "Buy Colorado-Made Goods" and "Buy Nebraska-Made Goods." Trade between Colorado and Nebraska naturally ceases. Business cannot grow freely under such a handicap.

Communities with army posts, federal officers and state institutions that should be abandoned in the interests of more efficient government, resist such abandonment with every device at their command.

Organizations and business leaders deplore the entrance of government into business, yet forgetful of the common good, all work tooth and nail for some local improvement built at government expense.

Schools, churches and advertising spend billions of dollars in educating citizens to be satisfied with nothing less than secure, comfortable and kindly living. These same citizens have organized themselves into cities, financial systems and industries. The hard-boiled selfishness of these financial and industrial organizations, expressed in taxes, tariffs, sharp dealing, foreclosure and unemployment, is largely neutralizing these educational forces. Into such chaos business would scarcely intrude.—L. D. Hartford, Denver, Col., in The Christian Science Monitor.

SUPPLYING THE HOME MARKET

How the automobile helps Canadian industries is demonstrated by official figures showing that domestic refineries supplied over 85 per cent of Canada's gasoline requirements in 1931. Of a total consumption of 554,989,600 gallons, domestic production amounted to 469,136,132 gallons. Three refineries operated entirely on Canadian crude oil, and fuel and gas oils made for sale amounted to 379,846,656 gallons. Other products made for sale included kerosene, asphalt, lubricating oil, wax and candles, grease and solvent naphtha. The gasoline consumption by motor vehicles was approximately 461,165,941 gallons which was 6,267,752 gallons, or 1.3 per cent less than in 1930.

The Newfoundland Humber Herald gets this off: The Forrester sailed for Miami, Los Angeles and Seattle with a cargo of paper. She had a mixed crew—Malays on deck, Lascars in the stokehold, and a few wild Scotmen for the purpose of keeping the peace.

Wash your windows, please? We washed our windows a few days ago, and the reflection of them on Charlie Minnie's hot-house killed several valuable plants.

Elevators and flour-mills at the Blue Grouse ranch have ceased operations for this season. All motor trucks and seventeen hundred horses have been sent to the prairie for winter pasture.

Charles Henry Parly, of Durham, Quebec, was sentenced to life imprisonment, found guilty of killing three children born to his twenty-year-old daughter. He was the father of the children, who were killed immediately after they were born.

Alex. E. May, former Edmonton postmaster and one of the first grand masters of the L.O.O.F. in Alberta, died at Edmonton last week end, at the age of sixty-nine. Mr. May has, for a number of years been Alberta's representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and for the past two years has been on the executive.

Gains in British Columbia will multiply and eventually become one of the greatest sources of wealth for the province, according to an opinion voiced by A. Bryan Williams, game commissioner. In his annual report, which has just been published, the central and northern portion of British Columbia is alive with big game and fur bearing animals. Lakes and rivers teem with the game and fighting trout.

At the request of the federal government, the provincial government have named the following commission to have charge of administration of relief in the province: A. A. Mackenzie, provincial relief officer, as chairman, with Robert Livingstone, Lethbridge, and Col. Sanders, Calgary (former police magistrate). The commission was named, following the visit to the province of Dr. W. J. Black, special relief officer of the federal government.

As a result of a recent return of nomination blanks from various locals in District 18, United Mine Workers of America, Robert M. Livett was re-elected by acclamation as president of the district for his fifth two-year term. With the exception of two years, Mr. Livett has been a member of the international board of the union since 1917. Angus J. Morrison was also re-elected secretary-treasurer by acclamation. He has held the position since 1926. Both executives were re-elected for the two-year term beginning April 1, 1933.

Angus Morrison, recently re-elected secretary of District 18 of the United Mine Workers of America, was in the Pass last week end. Robert Livett has also been re-elected president. Mr. Livett has recently returned from Indianapolis, and commenting on the United States presidential election, stated that at all points visited by him there appeared to be a swing to the Democrats, and Roosevelt's election seemed accepted as a certainty. The liquor question was the big issue, but one never knows what the last week in a big election will do.

As the days become shorter we notice that the passenger trains on the Crow are falling in line, and they too are becoming shorter. One way of accounting for this is that the former Pullman passengers have bought cars or are riding in the day coaches, and the former day coach passengers are riding in the boxcars, and those who used to ride in the boxcars have been crowded out and are riding the rods. The railways, it is true, are killing fewer passengers, but on the other hand fewer passengers are killing the railways. It is a case of diamond cut diamond, or dog eat dog. When will it end?—Ex.

Young People's Sun. Morning Class

How often the young people hear it said that they are to be envied because of their youth in these present days. Those who express this sentiment go on to qualify their remark by stating that they are now entering the portals of a new era in the world's history; an era which will see far-reaching changes economically, educationally, socially and spiritually. These changes will make unprecedented demands upon our young people because it is they who must give leadership in the near future.

Well, I sometimes wonder if the young people themselves have become conscious of the important place they occupy in the world today. Surely if they are aware of the challenge presented by conditions today it will necessarily follow that they are asking questions to which they demand straightforward answers. Can we not get together and assist one another by sharing each other's views on the problems which confront us? The Sunday morning class has been designed for that purpose. We make a start on Sunday morning next, November 13th, at 11 o'clock. Come along and add your contribution to discussions, the value of which will be determined by the Young People themselves.—A. E. LARKE.

YOUNG SPANISH LIFE SAVERS

That Spanish Boy Scouts are not behind those of other lands in life saving skill and courage was shown this summer at a Spanish bathing resort, when two young women were swept several hundred yards from shore by a strong tide. Two 14-year-old Scouts went to their aid, and after a long struggle got them near shore, where other Scouts helped. One young woman recovered; the Scouts persisted four hours in a fruitless effort to revive the other. No effort was made by onlookers to assist in the rescue.

The following from an exchange is most apt: Be prepared to do business when it offers, and why not come out of your shell and do some advertising? If you let your stock run low, if you allow yourself to go to seed, as it were, you will not be ready when the order comes, when buyer arrives. We know it is easy to get discouraged, to get down in the mouth, but the attitude of pessimism is fatal, let us shake ourselves and face the future bravely, not as those who have been beaten, but as victors eager to win new battles. To do this is not easy, but if you have good stuff in you, you will be able to control yourself and help others. Throw out your chest, keep your head up; play the game.

Report has it that many trucks are coming into the district of Macleod from British Columbia, loaded with fruit, for which they are looking for trade in wheat, oats or barley.

Alberta is credited with one of the lowest death rates in Canada, according to recent figures from the bureau of statistics at Ottawa. Saskatchewan, Ontario and Alberta are in the order named among the provinces in this respect, Alberta's rate being only 51.9 per 100,000.

A playwriting competition, open to residents of Alberta, is announced this week by the Department of Extension, University of Alberta. One-act and three-act plays can be submitted but all entries must be a Canadian background. Prizes of $100, $75 and $50 are offered. Winners will be announced at the 1933 dramatic festival to be held in Lethbridge about mid-February.

Inside of three minutes, a negro driver in Detroit broke no less than fifteen city traffic ordinances. "This looks to me like a record," writes A. O. Dunk, manufacturer of the Detroit Electric. "It took me thirty-two years to get two tickets from the police—one in 1901 for driving too fast (at eight miles an hour) and the other for driving too slow on Woodward Avenue in 1930 at thirty miles an hour."

Concluding 16 years of development, school fairs in Alberta had a very successful season in 1932. The first school fair was held in 1916, with one small district centering on Olds. Under direction of the provincial departments of agriculture and education, the school fairs have grown to be an important factor in rural community development. A total of 139 fairs are now held, with more than 35,000 rural school children participating, are showing something like 160,000 exhibits.

The Coleman young people have formed a club, known as the "Adonians," a club for promotion of sports and entertainments. At the last meeting, on Friday last, a hike was followed by a business meeting at the L.O.O.F. hall, at which future entertainments and the promotion of basketball were planned. This was followed by supper and a dance until midnight. Any Blainmore young people are at liberty to join by merely asking some of the members, or writing or seeing Mae Ball or Jim Cousins at Coleman.

Halloween pranks by some thirty youths at Vulcan developed into a very serious case of vandalism, when the high school rooms were raided and ransacked. Members of the school board and town council viewed a sorry sight when they were called to investigate. All doors were torn from the hinges, desks were overturned, school and exercise books thrown over the floor, and many being destroyed. Maps were torn from the rollers, chemistry apparatus broken, and the blackboards removed from the wall fastenings. Police are investigating.

If the cargo unloaded the other day at Montreal from the Canadian National liner Lady Rodney means anything, Old General Depression is finding the coconut a hard nut to crack, whether it be spelled "coconut" or "occasional." The exceptionally heavy shipment of coconuts aboard the Lady Rodney prompted an inquiry which revealed that for the year ending August, 1932, some 8,825,975 individual coconuts arrived in Canada from the British West Indies, compared with only 6,838,000 for the twelve months ending in August, 1931, and far smaller numbers for preceding years.

A slight decrease in radio licenses in the province is shown in the figures issued recently from Ottawa, which state that Alberta has this year 26,404 licenses compared with 27,401 last year. Edmonton city has shown an increase of about 1,000.

Alberta's average wheat yield this year will again lead other provinces by a considerable margin. The estimated average now made for this year's wheat yield in Alberta is 20 bushels per acre, compared with an estimated average of 13.1 in Saskatchewan and 16.8 in Manitoba.

Native Sons of Glasgow enroute to the big Convention of their Association at the Scottish city have been travelling across Canada via Canadian Pacific Railway from Victoria and points in Western Canada, Ontario and Quebec, for the selling of the "Dishness of Lethford." Members will gather from all over the world for a monster celebration July 15-25.

John Findlay, who is by way of being the all time big game hunter of the world, arrived at Vancouver recently aboard the "Empress of Russia," enroute to England "for a little rest." He adds to his big game hunting the disciplining of Malay head-bunters, who disregard the white man's laws. "One raid we made," said Mr. Findlay, "left a trail of twenty dead men."

Canadian Pacific low rate bargain return trips, which have been a very successful feature of the company's operation this year, will include one to the Maritime Provinces July 22, when Nova Scotia and New Brunswick will be covered in round trips to be in most of the show places of the two provinces. The trip will be varied by a sea passage in the fast new steamship "Princess Helene" across the Bay of Fundy to the Land of Evangeline.

A hole-in-one, though rare, is not unique, but when it is made by a lady and for the first time on the course it rates a headline. This was done by Mrs. Guy LaPrade on the 158-yard par three hole at the Canadian Pacific Recreation Club Course at Sorbus near Montreal recently.

After mature consideration the provincial department of agriculture will again operate the two schools of agriculture at Olds and Vermilion. For some years these have been the only two schools in operation. The registration this year has reached 82 at Vermilion and more than 100 at Olds, with prospects of several more at each school before the term has far advanced. The registration is fairly well up to last year.

From Our Own Correspondents

BELLEVUE HAPPENINGS

J. J. McIntyre returned home on Thursday morning from Winnipeg, where he has been for several weeks on business.

Miss Ella Emmerson entertained the ladies' sewing circle on Thursday evening last.

Charlie Dambols brought home the first deer of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Cartwright, of Blaimore, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tucker on Sunday last.

J. McAndrew, of Calgary, is visiting here with his daughter, Mrs. A. Goodwin.

F. Hallworth was a Calgary visitor over the week-end.

Mrs. J. Hill left for Calgary on Friday, to visit her mother, Mrs. G. W. Goodwin, who is a patient in the Holy Cross hospital.

Miss Gina Chiaravano is visiting her sister Enes in Calgary for a few days.

Bernie Beal and Johnny Hill were Lethbridge visitors on Saturday last.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Meade, of Chinook, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Meade here on Friday last. Bill is taking charge of the Natal market this winter.

Misses Marjorie Graham and Beatrice Nicholson left on Wednesday morning by motor to attend the teachers' convention at Lethbridge.

R. T. Johnson is around again, after a few weeks illness.

Andy Olson was injured in the Bellevue mine on Tuesday morning.

First Aid classes commenced on Sunday morning last, with F. Padgett and Ben Milnes as instructors. Any person over fifteen, who wishes to join, may give his name in to the instructors, or come to the class on Sunday morning at 10:30.

The Girl Guides and Brownies were busy on Saturday selling poppies.

Miss B. Spooner has taken over the leadership of the Brownies.

Mrs. B. Eccleston was a visitor to Blaimore on Monday.

Hilding Haglund was a visitor here on Monday. Hilding is staying with his parents at Waterton Lakes.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Ptacek, of Okotoks, are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. J. Kerr returned home on Sunday from Medicine Hat, where she has been visiting her mother, Mrs. A. May, for the past two weeks.

She was accompanied by Miss Mary Kerr, of Passburg.

Miss Bessie Morris and Messrs Kemsley and B. Gopwin left Tuesday night for Lethbridge to attend the teachers' convention.

Mrs. Carl Bogan was removed from the hospital to her home on Tuesday. The Bellevue basketball team journeyed to Michel on Monday evening, where they enjoyed a very snappy game with Michel. Although they received the short end of the score, they intend to show the B.C. aggregation what it is all about on Monday night next in Bellevue.

HILLCREST HAPPENINGS

G. E. Cruickshank, M.L.A., left for Edmonton on Sunday evening.

Miss McKerrick was a Calgary visitor last week.

In our last issue we announced that the Sunday school concert was to be held on Armistice day. This was a mistake, for the date set is December 1st.

A bazaar, tea and pantry sale was held by the C.W.L. and C.G.G. of Hillcrest in their hall on Saturday last, proving most successful. The serving counter was in charge of Mrs. McDougall and Mrs. Balkwill, the novelty counter in charge of Misses Lorna Balkwill and V. Cassagrande; the pantry and candy tables in charge of Misses Irene Ferby and Agnes Truba; the tea tables in charge of Mrs. W. Norton, assisted by Misses Irene Belopotovsky, Maggie Truba and Angelina D'Amico. The guests were entertained with a number of piano solos and duets by the choir girls. A dance followed in the evening, with a large number of the young people attending. During this event, prizes were drawn for by Miss Mary Puma-gall, the following being winners: John Seaman, Hillcrest, 100 lbs sugar; J. Turnbull, Maple Leaf, 100 lbs flour; E. E. Cranstoun, Bellevue, cutwork lunch cloth and napkins; J. Krander, Maple Leaf, fruit cake; J. Cousens, Bellevue, Premium ham; S. Fidenato, Maple Leaf, bacon; Mrs. McEachern, Bellevue, box of apples; Mrs. J. Lipnicka, Hillcrest, cushion.

Miss Audrey Martin received news of the death of her grandmother in Saskatchewan.

A number of Hillcrest teachers attended the convention at Lethbridge this week, including Misses Strachan, Turner, Sellon, and Messrs. Grant, Webster, Brushett, Collins and Chrysler. Mrs. Brushett and son Teddy accompanied.

Mr. Shevels, of Bellevue, had charge of the United church service here on Sunday evening.

Several parties of hunters have been out. Bob Silcocks brought home a nice four-year-old buck.

The Knights of Pythias are holding a whist drive and dance in their hall on Friday night, the 11th.

CORBIN HAPPENINGS

A wedding of interest, which has just been announced, is that of the marriage of Evelyn L., youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George McGruther, to Mr. William Hunchuk, both of Corbin, at the Blaimore United church on October the twenty-sixth. Both the bride and bridegroom are popular members of the Corbin younger set and are receiving the good wishes of their many friends.

An interesting meeting of the Corbin Community League was held in the B. & B. hall on Friday night last, with Mr. Booth, president, in the chair. The important business of the evening was the voting on tenders received for positions of caretakers and icemaker for the Corbin rink. The tender of Norman (Speed) Wilde was finally accepted, with a few alterations, and it is expected work on the rink will soon be commenced. It was decided also that one room of the rink house be put aside for the use of hockey players.

Friends of Jim McKelvie, who has been ill with pneumonia in the Corbin hospital, will be glad to learn that he is progressing favorably.

The junior room of the Corbin school was closed on Monday for a period of two weeks, as a precautionary measure against the epidemic of measles, of which ten cases were reported during the past week.

Very heavy snowfall prevented many cars from going out over the week end. Motorists report a bad mud hole beneath the railway bridge at McGillivray, and at present there is about three feet of snow in Corbin.

COWLEY HAPPENINGS

A meeting of the softball team was held on Tuesday night, when it was decided to hold a masquerade dance in the near future, for the purpose of raising funds to buy equipment for indoor athletic sports during the winter months.

A well attended concert and dance, sponsored by the ladies auxiliary of the Anglican church, was held in the Community hall at Lundbreck on Friday night. A tidy sum was added to the church fund.

The regular monthly meeting of the Cowley Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. H. C. Morrison on Wednesday night last.

Mrs. Robert Littleton is giving a series of lessons in First Aid work to the C.G.L.T., with the first one being held on Thursday evening last. The girls are delighted with this work, in which they take keen interest.

The district was shocked when learning of little Nancy Gunn's death, which occurred on Thursday evening at her home north of Lundbreck. Nancy was eight years of age and the youngest of a family of three children. She suffered a short illness of rheumatic fever and pneumonia combined, but with all loving hands could do to save her, the angel of death called her home. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon from her home to the Livingstone cemetery, where interment was made. Besides a host of relatives, she leaves her loving parents and sister Molly and brother Jimmy to mourn her loss. Deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones.

"John, dear, you used to hold my hand for hours. Why don't you do it now?"

"We've sold the piano, haven't we?"

The night was dark; it was raining hard. In the sweep of the lights, a car slowed up ahead, off the side of the road, leaning at a perilous angle. Just the situation for a good Samaritan. Coming to a stop, the conscientious motorist leaned out of the window: "Are you in trouble, my friend?"

Voice from car: "Nope, just in love."

Minister: "Good morning, Sandy. What's wrong? I thought you left yesterday for a week's holiday. Has anything happened that you're home again?"

Sandy: "Aye, sir. I lost a'ma bag."

"Good gracious! How did that happen?"

Sandy: "The cork cam' oot!"

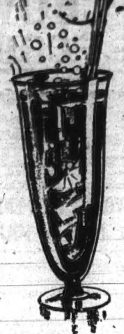

They were in the club and the conversation turned to Scotsmen. "From my experience," said George Brown, "I've found it best to take these stories about Scotsmen with a pinch of salt." For instance, I once knew an Aberdonian who found a 22-carat gold ring in the street. The blighter at once put a big display advertisement in the local newspaper. He stated that all the owner had to do was to pay for the advertisement.

"Well, that was certainly very decent of him," put in Fisher.

"Yes, I suppose it was," replied Brown, artfully, "but that isn't the point. The lad at the newspaper office was a Scotsman."

For keeping a place in an unclean state where meat is dressed and prepared for sale, F. Speer, Rosedale butcher, was fined $10 and costs when he appeared before Magistrate L. O'Connor at the Drumheller court-house. Accused, who pleaded guilty to the charge, was prosecuted by Provincial Sanitary Inspector Jack Williams.

WORLD HAPPENINGS BRIEFLY TOLD

Earl Fortescue, a former aide-de-camp to King George, is dead. He was 78 years old. Viscount Errington is 78 to the title.

The British admiralty announces that the names of the eight destroyers of the 1931 program will be Echo, Eclipse, Electra, Encounter, Escapade, Escort, Esk and Express.

A piece of quartz picked up casually by a road worker, has started a small gold rush into the Fourth of July canyon, east of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

Six new schools to accommodate 8,440 pupils—made necessary chiefly by housing development at Beconter, Essex, England—were opened at Barking, a ceremony believed to be unique.

Rear-Admiral Edward Radcliffe Evans, whose career in the royal navy since 1897 has been marked with a rapid succession of promotions and distinguished services, is promoted vice-admiral.

Great Britain is planning her hope of the world economic conference to be held at London for a solution of the world's problems, said Lord Reading, former Viceroy of India, addressing the British Empire Chamber of Commerce at New York.

Heroism which was responsible for the saving of 37 lives when the steamer "Walford" was wrecked on the coast of Nova Scotia on September 10, was recalled in London recently when Second Officer Herbert Mann was presented with the Lloyd's silver medal for life-saving at Lloyd's office.

George C. Smith, general traffic manager of the Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railway, believes thousands of Texans are no longer "train-conscious." He said a survey in several leading colleges disclosed 30 per cent. of the students had never ridden a railroad train.

The secret, say delegates to the Illinois Association of Chiropractors, is out: Adam and Eve both had flat feet. "But," said one delegate, "the ancients were better off than the moderns. They suffered from foot trouble due mainly to poor circulation, which they couldn't help."

London's Hospital For Poor

Was Result Of Vow Made By Pilgrim To Rome

St. Bartholomew's Hospital in London, England, was built as the result of a vow. Eight hundred years ago a courier named Rabere started on a pilgrimage to Rome. Becoming ill during the journey, he vowed to St. Bartholomew that if he were spared he would build a hospital for the poor. He recovered, and in due course the hospital was built, partly by his own hands. "Barth," by the way, is the only hospital within the City of London, and the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City, while holding office, automatically become governors.

The Bright Side

You can always find some reason for looking on the bright side of things. For instance, we are as glad as glad can be that we are not the official office boy who had to announce that Premier Cheng Hsiao-Hsu of Manchukuo was in conference with Foreign Minister Hsieh Ch'eh-Tai.

At Colon, canal zone, the average rainfall is about 116 inches a year.

Farmers in Hungary are reported to be in serious financial condition.

Canada Not Military State

Spends Very Little Per Capita For Defence Purposes

Miss Macphail to the contrary, Canada is not a military state, certainly cannot, justly be accused of seeking a place in the sun through armed force.

The report of the Department of National Defence for the fiscal year to March 31, 1931, makes this very clear. To 32,691 Canadians who had been in military affairs only $1,221,945, or almost $800,000 less than the bill of eighteen years ago. In 1914 there were 32,691 Canadians who had each 12 days of camp training. Last year 2,182 men had four days each. In the Canadian permanent forces are 3,703 men of all ranks.

Those who can vision in these significant figures a picture of a nation bent on conquest, on military glory, have not the least trouble in seeing a school cadet corps as a class in blood-thirstiness. Few nations in the world spend as little per head of population for defence purposes as this Dominion, and when general armament comes down to the Canadian level we can assume that the world has reached that happy state where wars and rumors of wars will have ceased.—Ottawa Journal.

Facts About Big Liner

Empress Of Britain Equal To De Luxe Hotel

The "Empress of Britain" burns fifteen tons of crude oil in its engines every hour; its four screws are driven by steel shafts 26 inches in diameter by four turbine oil engines; its engine room is an immense power plant; the ship has 850 miles of electric wiring; there are separate cold rooms for butter, fruit, meat, vegetables, milk, canned goods, cereals, tobacco; its laundry goes night and day; it has 4,500 lights in the first class dining room alone, and there are several dining rooms; its swimming pool is heated; all the cooking except meat is done by electricity; there is hot and cold water in every room; there are separate rooms for baking pastries, bread, cooking vegetables, making ice cream, etc., etc. The vast culinary department is complete down to an electric egg cooker and an automatic machine which checks the time of every dish and records it in case there is complaint. The ship is a vast organization, over which every man is held responsible either by supervision or machine for his work. It works out like a Swiss watch. From the greenhouse to the bridge the system seems foolproof. Nothing is left to chance—not even the boiling of an egg.

When Windows Were Taxed

Levy Introduced During Reign Of William The Third

Bricked-in windows in many of the old houses in England are a reminder of the time when all windows were taxed. The tax was introduced in the reign of William III, in order to defray the cost of the reconquest of Ireland. Many people objected to paying the tax, and it was to lessen the amount which would be demanded that they caused some of their windows to be bricked-in. The tax remained in existence until 1851, when it was replaced by the inhabited house duty.

The earliest known mechanical toy dates back to about 2000 B.C., and is of Egyptian origin.

Value Of the League

Has Accomplished Much In the Years Of Its Existence

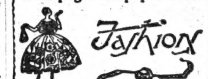

We have had the League of Nations only a few years now, and in that short time it has done much. It has bound up some wounds of the last war, cured some ills of the present, and prevented some evils for the future. It cannot attempt everything all at once—to give peace in twelve years to a planet which has been distracted by war for more than double that number of centuries. It can only attempt what a sufficient number of its supporters want it to attempt. The real danger in this crisis in its affairs is not of too slow progress but of its falling back through lassitude and ignorance on the part of Governments and peoples into a state where nobody cares whether it lives or dies. That must not be, the world would have no use for an apologetic survival, lingering on like a Holy Roman Empire or a Holy Alliance long after the life had left it.—Manchester Guardian.

Woman Acted As Minister

Took Charge For Month Of American Legation At Stockholm

The United States had a woman acting as its Minister to a foreign capital for the first time. Miss Frances Elizabeth Willis, third secretary, headed the American Legation at Stockholm during a month's absence of Minister John M. Morehead. Military, naval and commercial attaches, as well as a Consul-General, and Consul, reported to her. There is no first secretary and the second secretary was absent. Miss Willis sent a cable that satisfied Secretary of State Stimson that she could fill the job. "The Minister left last night; I have assumed charge."—Christian Science Monitor.

White Woman Plans Hazardous Trip

Will Lead Expedition Into Land Of Head Hunters

The first white woman ever to invade the head hunters of Venezuela will lead a University of Arizona ethnology expedition this winter into the treacherous wilds of the Andes mountains.

Planting the traditions of her sex, Mrs. Ana Marx McGrath plans to spend several months among three savage tribes. She expects to arrive on mule back in the land of the head hunters by December. Mrs. McGrath will pierce into the mountain fastnesses of the Guajira Indians, who even today slash the heads of their enemies, and use a method similar to the pygmies of Africa to shrink and mummify the features. Seeking to discover whether the theory is true that the tribe migrated from Florida to South America, she will attempt to find their ancient cities and to trace back through artifacts their history. She will make motion pictures of her explorations.

While in Caracas, Mrs. McGrath will confer with Dr. Raphael Reguena, noted authority on the South American Indians. The expedition will also have as an advisor Andre Manning, renowned Colombian archaeologist.

Using Food For Fuel

Nebraska Planning To Heat School Buildings With Corn

Down in Brazil, recently, they were burning surplus stocks of coffee—just to get rid of it, as they do not need fires in that part of the world, except for cooking purposes. But out in Nebraska artificial heating is necessary during a good part of the year and the school commissioners in one district have decided to heat the court house and 62 school buildings under their jurisdiction with corn next year. They figure it will provide a ready market for the farmer's surplus crop and, perhaps save the country some money at the same time. They estimate they can purchase corn, still on the cob, at $8 per ton, while coal costs $12 a ton.—Moncton Times.

MAKING A LIVING

Golden Text: "In diligence not slothful."—Romans 12:11.
Lesson: Deuteronomy 24:14; Amos 5:6-15; Mark 6:3; Luke 12:13-21; 19:1-26; 2 Thessalonians 3:6-13; 1 Timothy 6:6-10.
Devotional Reading: Proverbs 30:7-9.

Explanations and Comments

Denunciation Of Injustice and Oppression, Amos 5:11-15.—The prophet Amos is addressing the judges who "trampled upon the poor" by exacting from them a share of their scanty wheat in payment for justice. They shall reap what they have sown, Amos tells them; they shall not live in the houses of hewn stone which they have built, nor drink the wine from the vineyards they have planted. The prophet sees the approaching downfall of the kingdom of Israel. Recall the observation of Lamar-tine that man never fastened one end of a chain around the neck of his brother that God did not fasten the other around the neck of the oppressor.

I know how manifold are your trespasses, and how mighty are your sins, Amos exclaims, and then accuses them of accepting bribes from the rich, who then escaped the penalty due, and of withholding their rights from the needy who could not pay a bribe. The "gate" refers to the broad, open space before a city gate where claims were adjudged.

"Representative government," democracy, the social order itself, stand in no greater danger than that threatened by the bribe-giver and the bribe-taker. When bills are passed or decrees for money secretly paid in hand, when justice is sold and law made an article of shameless traffic, the foundations of government and order are undermined.

Therefore he that is prudent—cautious—shall keep silence in such a justice; for it is an evil time. The evil justices were in power, and it was useless for others, so, they thought, to attempt to change things, they would only get themselves into trouble in such a time as has just been described.

"Life is God's sacramental gift. To man for his emphasizing." The talent given into his care. For his soul's exercising. A sacred trust bestowed on him for his immortalizing. And he who lends will one day ask His own again with interest. See to it then, lest thou be found Of those who failed Him in the test."—John Oxenham.

How Orientals Do It

Japan Has Built and Delivered Warship To China

For a year undecleared war between China and Japan has been going on, all the time in Manchuria and for two months in Shanghai.

But Japan has just delivered at Shanghai a first-class warship which she has been building for China since May, 1931. Japanese warships are in port and threatening action if the anti-Japanese boycott here does not cease and while a section of the Japanese fleet lies in the river at Shanghai the new Japanese-built Chinese warship steams up-river and is taken over by the "enemy."

The new vessel is a destroyer of 3,000 tons, costing $2,500,000, has a speed of 25 knots and represents an advanced type of naval craft. She is called the "Ninghai."

NEW INVENTION DOES AWAY WITH COOKING ODORS

Even fish and cauliflower bow down to Canapar Cookery Parchment

BETTER, CHEAPER AND EASIER COOKING

Delicious as cauliflower, cabbage and certain other vegetables are, they have imposed a heavy penalty on people who fearlessly cooked them. Not to mention those who had to suffer the odor without enjoying the finished product. The same thing is equally true of fish.

Canapar Cookery Parchment, a very ingenious invention, does away with this annoyance entirely. While searing in oil, it also retains flavor and food value. Cooking in Canapar actually parallels the famous French method of sautéing and confining food and its flavor in the closed casserole.

You buy Canapar in a large envelope of handle sheets which may be rinsed out and used over and over again because they won't absorb odors. When boiling vegetables you simply wet the Canapar and make a bag similar to a pudding bag. If you steam them, you line the steamer with Canapar, arrange food and seasonings, and fold back corners of the Canapar to prevent steam from dripping back. You can actually cook three vegetables at once in the same saucepan, this way—save fuel—and the flavors will not intermingle.

Steamed, or boiled, fish comes out firm, solid and swimming in its own juice. No odors. No sticky steamer or saucepan to clean up afterwards.

Line your roasting pan with Canapar, then the fat and juice can't burn. Meat is more succulent and there is no scouring or scraping of the pan afterwards.

Many women use Canapar for a dish cloth—it is so silky and satisfactory, and doesn't spread lint.

You'll never be without Canapar once you start using it. It saves time and money. Made by the makers of the famous PARASOL Heavy Weight Paper in the Green Box.

Special Offer
Most grocers, druggists and department stores sell Canapar, but if you don't, just send the coupon and we'll give you a new and unique book entitled "Leftovers" containing one hundred recipes as a bonus for your trouble.

THE HOUSE OF DREAMS-COME-TRUE

— BY —
MARGARET PEDLER

Author of
"The Splendid Folly," "The Hermit
Of Fair Wind"
Hodder & Stoughton, Ltd., London.

With a little inarticulate cry she ran to him—to the place that was hers, now and for all time, against his heart—and his arms, that had been so long empty, held her as though he would never let her go. "Beloved of my heart!" he murmured. "Oh, my sweet—my sweet!" They spoke but little. Only those foolish, tender words that seem so meaningless to those who are not lovers but which are pearls strung on a thread of gold to those who love—a memory of memory which will be theirs to keep and tell again when the beloved voice that uttered them shall sound no more.

CHAPTER XXXVII

"An House Not Made With Hands"

The landlord of the inn of the Green Dragon watched his two English visitors ride away up the steep road that led to Beirfels with unquestionable regret.

They had been lodging at the Green Dragon for the past fortnight, and he had discovered that English mildreds, whatever else they might be, were not niggardly with their money. They required a good deal of attention, it is true, and had a strange, outlandish predilection for innumerable baths, demanding a quite unheard-of quantity of water for the same. And at all unlikely hours of the day, too—when returning from a ride or before going up to the castle to dine, mark you!

Still, they made no difficulty about paying—and paying handsomely—for all they wanted, and if a man chooses to spend his money upon the superfluous scrubbing of his epidermis, it is, after all, his own affair!

And now the two English mildreds were taking their departure from the Green Dragon, and so the landlord understood, proposed to stay at the castle itself until their return to England.

It appeared that their lady-mother—who, it was rumoured in the village, was the daughter of an English archduke, no less—was coming to Beirfels and there was much talk amongst the village girls of weddings and the like. Apparently the Green Dragon's two eccentric visitors, not withstanding their altogether abnormal liking for soap and water, were much as most men in other respects and had lost their hearts to the two pretty English ladies living at the castle. So, no doubt, the "daughter of an English archduke, no less," was coming from England just to hate to enquire into the suitability of the bride-elect—and also into the important point of the amount of the dowry each might be expected to bring her future husband.

There was no question that Lady Anne was certainly coming post haste—in reply to a series of joyful and imperative telegrams demanding that she should pack up and come to Beirfels immediately—"for we are all enjoying ourselves far too much to return to England at present," as Nick wired her with an iniquitous disregard for the cost per word of foreign telegrams. And Lady Anne, who always considered money well-spent if it purchased happiness, proceeded to wire back with equal extravagance that she was delighted to hear it and that she and her maid would start at once.

It was a very happy party that gathered round the table in the great dining-hall at Beirfels on the night of Lady Anne's arrival, and beneath all the surface laughter and gaiety lay the deep, quiet thanksgiving that only comes to those who have emerged out of the night of darkness and sorrow into a glorious sunlight of happiness and hope.

After dinner, in the soft, candle-lit dusk—for Peterson had never introduced the garish anomaly of electric light into the ancient castle—Jean sang to them in that quaintly appealing, husky voice of hers, simple tender folk-songs of the countryside, and, finally, at a murmured request from Blaise, she gave them "The House of Dreams."

It's a strange road leads to the House of Dreams,
To the House of Dreams-Come-True,
Its hills are steep and its valleys deep,
And salt with tears the Wayfarers weep.

The Wayfarers—I and you
But there's a sure way to the House of Dreams,
To the House of Dreams-Come-True,
We shall find it yet, ere the sun has set.

If we fare straight on, come fine, come wet,
The Wayfarers—I and you.

As the last words died away in silence, she looked up and met Blaise's eyes. He was leaning against the piano, looking down at her with a tranquil happiness in his gaze.

"Our House of Dreams-Come-True, Jean, at last," he said softly.

She met his glance with one of utter trust.

"And we needn't ever fear, now, that it will tumble down. But oh, Blaise, if we had built on a rotten foundation, we should never have felt safe—not safe like this!"

"No. You were right, beloved—just as you always have been, and always will be. Then, very low, so that none but she should hear: "Thank God for you, my sweet!"

It was ultimately settled that the whole party should remain at Beirfels until the latter end of June, when they would all return to England together and the two weddings should take place as soon as possible afterwards.

"But we won't have a double wedding," declared Jean. "It's always supposed to be unlucky."

"Do you believe in good and bad luck, then?" asked Lady Anne, smiling.

"I don't know," Jean answered seriously. "But it's always just as well to be on the safe side. Anyway, we won't tempt Fate by running unnecessary risks!"

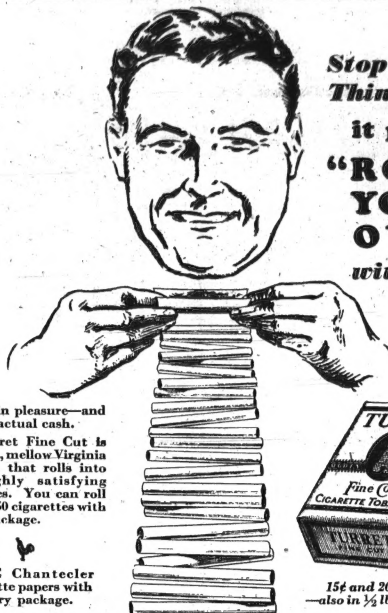

"Besides, madonna," added Nick, "in the excitement of the moment we might get mixed and the parson hitch us up to the wrong people. The average nerve-strain attendant upon the role of bridegroom will be quite sufficient for me, thank you, without the added uncertainty as to whether I'm getting tied up to the right woman or not."

So spring lengthened out into summer, and, as the heat increased, bathing and swimming on the big lake that nestled in a basin of the hills were added to the long rides and excursions with which they whiled away the pleasant, sunny days.

Ever afterwards, the memory of those tranquil months at Beirfels would linger in the minds of those who shared them as something rare and precious. It was as though for this little span of time, passed so far away from the noise and bustle of the big world, they had pulled their barges out of the busy fairway of the river and moored it in some quiet, shady backwater. Then, when they were rested and refreshed, they would be ready to face anew, with fresh strength and courage, the difficulties and dangers of mid-stream.

"I'm sorry it's so nearly over—this long, long holiday of ours," said Jean regretfully. "The only thing that reconciles me to the fact is that after we're married Blaise and I propose to spend at least six months out of every year at Beirfels."

Paris Overcomes Noise

Has Become One Of Most Silent Cities At Night

One of the noisiest cities in the world by day, Paris has become by night one of the most silent, owing to the relentless war against "bruits nocturnes" waged by the police. When a decree proscribing various unnecessary noises was announced it aroused general derision. Yet, in spite of the great activity in Paris at night, the degree of silence achieved is a tribute to the success of the police. A list of the proceedings taken during a period of eight weeks shows that almost every possible kind of offense has been committed detected and punished. Of the 889 cases in which action was taken the majority were against motorists for use of the horn during prohibited hours.

GOODS

Oh, the good that one man workshops
Is a thing of wood and jade,
With topaz eyes and ivory hands
And feet, grotesquely made!

And the God another kneels to
Walks, unseen, where candles bloom
And the incense slowly rises
Through a lofty, vaulted room.

But the God who gives me courage
For the conflict, day by day,
Is the God who keeps beside me
Wherever I may stray.

Oh, my God is farther distant
Than the idol, strangely dressed,
Yet my God is nearer to me
Than the heart within my breast!

For I find Him in the heavens
And in every starry land,
And I find Him in the rosebud
That is lying in my hand!

Joe Stella returned home last week end, after several months spent at the Pacific coast. Joe beat his way via the rods from Vancouver to Lethbridge, and had the misfortune to be apprehended at that centre and mulcted of the bulk of his coast savings.

W. Wolstenholme returned last week end from Vancouver, where he visited his two daughters. Shortly after arriving at the coast city, Mr. Wolstenholme was engaged to convey a party of tourists as far east as Regina, from which point he returned to the coast to complete his holiday.

The inconvenience of there not being a telephone in the Customs office at Blairmore has been the cause of complaints by people living in other towns who may desire to secure information. Up till some months ago, there was a telephone. For a Federal government office, this appears to be cutting things too fine, and people ask the reason why. Customs duties are sufficiently heavy to stand the cost of a necessary public service such as a telephone.—Coleman Journal.
